Would you like to write for HindSight magazine?

HindSight is a magazine on human and organisational factors in operations, in air traffic management and beyond.

As such, we especially welcome articles from air traffic controllers and professional pilots, as well as others involved in supporting them.

Here are some tips on writing articles that readers appreciate.

1. Articles can be around 1500 words (maximum), around 1000 words, or around 500 words in length. You can also share your local good practice on what works well for you and your colleagues, on the theme of each Issue, in up to 200 words.

2. Practical articles that are widely applicable work well. Writing from experience often helps to create articles that others can relate to.

3. Readers appreciate simple and straightforward language, short sentences, and concepts that are familiar or can be explained easily.

4. Use a clear structure. This could be a story of something that you have experienced. It helps to write the 'key points' before writing the article.

5. Consider both positive and negative influences on operations, concerning day-to-day work and unusual circumstances, sharp-end and blunt-end.

If you have an idea for an article that might be of benefit to others, we would like to hear from you.
